There are simply so many people today looking for Bacolod lots for sale. Who wouldn't? The city is probably among the most, if not the most livable city in the Philippines. It is also considered as the most business-friendly city, where you can certainly grow your business. And, the crime rate in Bacolod is certainly very low compared to other component cities.

So in response to the undeniably growing economy, investors started pouring in. This is evidenced by the multitude of ongoing construction projects all over the city. In fact, there are now several condominiums catering to the needs of young professionals who want to stay close to the main thoroughfares of the city, just like Lacson and Araneta Sts. Many dining places have also emerged, in addition to some of Bacolod's pride like Imay's, Aboy's, Bob's and 21 Bar.
