

How to Enjoy the Good Life in Bacolod City

Written by Administrator
Friday, 16 May 2014 00:00 -

If you have recently purchased a home in Bacolod City, such as that in Oasis Subdivision, then you are truly in for a treat. Why? Well, Bacolod certainly has a lot of things to offer you. In fact, the city bustles with activities all throughout the year that you will never get bored.

Here are some facts about Bacolod that will make you say you truly made the right choice of settling in the City of Smiles.

First, Bacolod City is now home to three large shopping malls. This means that whether you head south, north, or right in the middle of the busy city, there will be a shopping mall that will embrace you, ready to provide you with your needs. You've got SM City, Robinson's Place Bacolod and Gaisano City. But wait, just a few years from now and you will see another giant shopping mall in the heart of the city – the Ayala Shopping Mall! Now how's that for urban living?

If you are a foodie and almost every day, you have this craving for a variety of foods, then check out the different types of foods that are prepared by a host of fine restaurants that line up the tourism strip. There are also a lot more restaurants that you can find within the city. There are those that specialize in seafood, while there are others that focused on home style cooking. With so many great restaurants in the city, you simply won't know where to start!

If you're a coffee addict, you will surely find Bacolod an amazing place. It is home to several of the finest coffee shops. You can find joints that are open 24/7 and there are those that are only open until around 10 or 11 in the evening. So depending on your preferred time, you will always

How to Enjoy the Good Life in Bacolod City

Written by Administrator
Friday, 16 May 2014 00:00 -

find one that will coincide with your schedule.

And, lastly, Bacolod is now home to so many convenience stores. You have Seven Eleven, i-Mart and Munsterific, all of which can provide you with the ease and comfort that you need to make life worth living in Bacolod City.

So what are you waiting for? Purchase that dream house of yours in Oasis Subdivision and you'll surely enjoy living in Bacolod!