Every prospective homeowner would always be on the lookout for the most ideal place where she could settle for life. Today, the best kind of city living is being able to give yourself the luxury and comforts offered by the modern world and at the same time enjoy the relaxing ambiance of nature. This setting is not readily found in any area of Bacolod City, but probably only in Oasis Subdivision in Brgy. Mansilingan, where luxurious living is bestowed on every home.

The busy lifestyle of individuals today can truly take a toll whenever he or she goes home to a place that does not offer a sense of relaxation.

Think about this, you are there all day in the office, inundated with paperwork, phone calls, problems here and there, with your supervisor or boss constantly nagging behind your back. Then when the clock ticks 5 o'clock in the afternoon, you start feeling a sense of relief come over you, coming to the realization that you have hurdled one day at the office.

And then, as you pack away your stuff and start heading for your car, you get to picture out your home, and your environment on the overall, and you start to have this heavy feeling in your heart, wishing for something much better, something that could make you feel relaxed and truly comfortable the moment you alight from your car.
