Among the best places to live in Bacolod City is Oasis Subdivision. It has great features that a lot of homeowners are searching for. Once found, these homeowners feel proud at having found a very nice home for themselves. The most important part is they provide comfort and convenience to their families. It is located in Brgy. Mansilingan, which is an ideal location considering that it is only a few minutes from the main thoroughfares of the city. The subdivision sits on an 18-hectare lot right along the Mansilingan Highway. This was developed to match the needs of many families who would like to enjoy grand living. The front façade of Oasis is very attractive. It is a nice masonry work, indicating the quality of living that Oasis offers. In this grand subdivision, the entrance and exit areas are separate. The purpose of this is to ensure that people who wish to get inside the premises are duly noted. This is for the ultimate safety of homeowners. In addition, the entire subdivision is gated.

When you take the road to Murcia, the subdivision will easily catch your eye. You will see the grand edifice of the clubhouse. It combines the nice and subtle colors of pink orange and cream. The colors make the clubhouse stand out, a true beauty to behold. Stone claddings define the pillars of the clubhouse truly mesmerizing the eyes of the beholder.

The basketball court is adjacent to the clubhouse. It follows a regular sized court so that residents can enjoy a game and have utter fun on weekends. Aside from the basketball court, there is also the swimming pool which is open for the whole community. One can definitely stretch his muscles with a few laps. For those who want to learn how to swim, then this area will be a good place to frequent. Adults will find the adult pool enticing, while children will have a blast in the kiddie pool.

Another feature of the clubhouse is the spacious area. This is truly perfect for any type of gathering. Whether it's a children's party or a party for professionals, this area will be the perfect place.

Bacolod City Oasis Subdivision is truly among the places where you will begin to breathe and take delight in the fresh air. The breeze in this subdivision blows constantly. All throughout the subdivision, you will feel the wind blowing. No matter what time of day, the breeze here is just great. One good thing that this leads to is less usage of the air conditioner. Once you live here, you will surely enjoy luxurious living. Nothing could ever come close to living in Oasis.
