

After Visiting Various Lots for Sale in Bacolod, What Else Can You Do?

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 27 June 2013 00:00 - Last Updated Thursday, 27 June 2013 22:23

You must have already heard how the real estate industry in Bacolod City has grown exponentially, which must be the reason why you might have come to the city to take a look at the various lots that are being offered for sale. Now if you have already finished visiting these lots, you might now be wondering if there is anything else that you can do in the city. Well, there is actually so many things that you can do in Bacolod.

Satisfy Your Palate

One thing that many tourists, both local and foreign, could not ever forget about the city is the delectable food that they get to taste. Bacolod is home to the finest chicken inasal, which will literally make you come back for more. For that restaurant aura and semi-posh setting, you can opt for either Chicken Deli, located at Lacson St. near the Capitol Lagoon, or Chicken House, which is located at Araneta St., Brgy. Singcang. You can also go for the rowdy setting at The Manokan, where you can choose from many stalls that can give you great-tasting chicken.

After Visiting Various Lots for Sale in Bacolod, What Else Can You Do?

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 27 June 2013 00:00 - Last Updated Thursday, 27 June 2013 22:23

Try not to leave Bacolod without visiting restaurants like Bob's, 21 Bar and Restaurant, and Imay's. And if you are in for sweet treats, make sure that you spend a few minutes at Calea where you will be delighted by the array of cakes and pastries that will haunt your dreams.

Experience the Great Outdoors

Unbeknownst to many, there are so many great spots in Negros Occidental that can offer you with great outdoor activities, one of which is Mambukal Mountain Resort. After going around the Bacolod searching for that perfect lot for sale, with all its hustles and bustles, spending a day or two at the aforementioned mountain resort can definitely make you feel relaxed.

You can rest your tired muscles in the Dipping Pool, feel the exhilaration as you try out the zip line, test your skills in kayaking, and behold the beauty of the lovely butterflies in the Butterfly Garden.

These aren't the only things that you can do in the city right after you have visited the different lots for sale in Bacolod. If you get to stay for a couple of days more, you will see that there are so many activities that you can do, all of which can make you feel wonderful. So why not spend a day more in the city? For sure, you will not regret it.