Bacolod City is renowned for smiling faces and an exuberant atmosphere. Roaming the city has never been so good. You simply see smiles everywhere!

And, with the current real estate developments in almost every area of the city, you can simply feel the overpowering economic growth. More and more people choose Bacolod to raise their families. In fact, if you take a look at prominent living communities, like Oasis Subdivision, there are already many homeowners who are enjoying their house and lots, and experiencing the joys and comfort of living in the City of Smiles.
